AFTER THE DEATH CRASH AT STAMFORD, CONN., SHOWING ENGINE AND TELESOPED PULLMAN

This picture shows how the engine ran two-thirds way through the rear Pullman, Skylark, on section one of the Boston to New York express on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad at Stamford, Conn., on June 12. An inquiry indicated that the blame for the accident rests upon the engineer or section two, who was alleged to have ran past the block signal and then crashed into the rear of the standing train. He claimed the air-brakes failed to work. Five were killed and about a score injured. One of whom died.

Corpse When She Sends a Bullet Into Her Own Head.

Savannah, Ga., June 17.—Dr. Guy
A. Brinkley, a practicing physician was killed in his office here by Miss Katie Kittles. After killing Dr. Brinkley, Miss Kittles turned the revolver upon herself, and shooting herself through the temple, fell dead across the prostrate form of her victim.

Dr. Brinkley was shot three or four times. The coroner, who was called to the scene with Chief Meldrim and several other police officers, found three bullet wounds in the body from an automatic revolver which the woman had used for her deadly work.
The woman concealed the revolver in a small white handbag which she carried to the office with her.

Miss Kittles was accompanied by a lady companion. When the woman began to shoot, Dr. Brinkley ran out of his office, followed by Miss Kittles.
The chase led from the inner office into the outer office, then into a passageway leading to the kitchen.

Dr. Brinkley called to the maid,
Anna Williams, who was in the kitchen,
"For God's sake get the police."
He at that time had two wounds in his body, one in the back and one in the back of the neck, and was bleeding profusely. The colored woman ran to a nearby drug store for assistance.

Miss Kittles continued her pursuit

MOOTED SCHEDULE AGAIN TWISTED

LIVE STOCK AND GRAIN STAY ON FREE LIST

Agricultural Schedule of Tariff Bill Again Upset.

Washington, June 17.—The muchmooted agricultural schedule of the Underwood tariff bill was suddenly upset again by the majority members of the senate finance committee when a motion was made to reconsider action taken earlier in the day approving the free-listing of live stock and wheat subject to a countervailing duty. The proposal now is to strike out the provision for a countervailing duty and leave cattle, sheep and hogs and wheat on the free list, unrestricted. Members of the committee said that this probably would be done by the majority. No reason for the change was announced.

WHITE SLAVER'S FATE

Convicted On Girl's Charge.
Columbus, O., June 17.—Frank Rungo will serve three years in the Moundville, W. Va., prison for confessed violation of the Mann act, in which he transported 17-year-old Hattie Hall Lyons from New Cumberland, W. Va., to Steubenville, O., and kept her there in involuntary confinement for alleged immoral purposes. He was sentenced by Judge Sater in federal court here after the girl had told her story. Bessie Volpe of Steubenville, indicted on the same charge, was released by the court. She aided the government authorities.

SPEAKING VERY FRANKLY WITNESS TELLS THE STORY

BEET SUGAR KING BEFORE PROBES

Fought Reductions In Sugar Duties For Many Years.

PLEASED WITH ALDRICH ACT

Passage of Underwood Bill Would Result, He Declares, In the Formation of a New Sugar Trust Which Would Violate the Anti-Trust Law.
How New York Bankers Organized
the Beet Sugar Company.

Washington, June 17.—Henry T.
Oxnard, vice president of the American Beet Sugar company, was the principal witness before the senate lobby investigators.

Senator Reed of Missouri questioned the witness as to the accomplishments of the legislative agents of the sugar industry from the days of the McKinley bill to date.
Mr. Oxnard told the committee that the sugar men had won but little of what they wanted when the McKinley bill was under consideration. They received a bounty when they wanted a duty. The Wilson bill restored a duty, but not so much as the sugar men had contended for. The Dingley bill was about right. The domestic sugar crowd had fought Hawaiian annexation, Cuban reciprocity, the 2,000 tons of free annual importation from the Philippines and had received about what they had hoped for in the Payne-Aldrich law.

"Take it all together, you have fared pretty well," said Senator Reed.
"I can't speak so cheerfully of the pending measure," said Mr. Oxnard.
"No, I reckon you can't," was the rejoinder.

Mr. Oxnard told the committee how New York bankers, who helped to organize the beet sugar company, insisted upon putting in about $15,000,000 water in the $20,000,000 corporation;
how he and his brothers had made about $1,000,000 by the sale of much of their share of this watered stock, and gave warning that the Underwood bill, with its free sugar provision, would result, in his opinion, in the formation of a new sugar trust which would violate the anti-trust law.

Gets Up at Sunrise to Look Over the Daily Newspapers.

Tarrytown, N. Y., June 17.—John D. Rockefeller is taking an unusual interest in the New York morning papers lately, and his coachman is aroused at 4:30 every morning to go down town to get the papers for him.
The coachman said: "Why, I don't get them early enough for Mr. Rockefeller now. The other morning he was so anxious that he had walked half way down the road to meet me."
Arrangements are being made for Mr. Rockefeller's return to Cleveland about June 23. He is in robust health.

TRAGIC DEATH

FOUND DEAD IN FLAT

English Coroner Begins Inquiry Into Death of Chicago Woman.

London, June 17.—The coroner of Westminster began an investigation today into the tragic death of Mrs.
Viola McKenna Hudson of Chicago, who was found dead in her flat in St.
George's mansions, on the Vauxhall bridge road. Mrs. Hudson was an attractive woman of 26. It is understood that she had a private income which was sent to her from America.
She was usually in the best of health and spirits. An envelope was found on the back of which was found scribbled a notification that the writer
"being of sound mind" revoked all former wills. She left legacies to certain friends.

DR. HERBERT PUTNAM TO PEEP INTO FUTURE FOR THE LIBRARIANS

Washington, June 17.—Dr. Herbert congress here since 1899, will be one of the prominent figures at the thirty-fifth annual convention of the American Library Association, at the Hotel Kaweah, in the Catskills, June 23. It is expected upward of 1,000 members of the association will hear his address on the future of the library system. He was twice president of the organization. Before he came to Washington he was at the Minneapolis and Boston public libraries.

PUBLIC OPINION THE SOVEREIGN

CURRENCY REFORM UP TO THE PEOPLE

House Will Receive Bill, Then Give Ear to Nation.

Washington, June 17.—Public opinion, the sovereign voice in lawmaking, is to decide whether there shall be currency legislation at the present session of congress. This was the view which Representative Oscar Underwood, the Democratic leader in the house, took after a conference with President Wilson at the White House.

In the face of conflicting expressions from prominent Democrats in congress as to the necessity for currency reform during the present session, it is the avowed purpose of the administration to launch a currency bill in the house and senate before Friday of this week, which will be accompanied or followed by the president's message describing what he believes to be the necessity for banking reform. Then, according to Mr.
Underwood, the plan of the house will be to rest on its oars, thoroughly discuss the new banking proposals and await the expression of the new-papers of the country and the opinion of bankers and business men generally as to the merits of the Democratic proposals.

ered.

KENYON REBUKED MINE OPERATORS

MINERS HOLDING MASS MEETINGS

Protest Against the Discharge Of Union Workers.

CLAIM AGREEMENT VIOLATED

Senate Investigating Committee Continues Its Examination of Witnesses
Despite Renewal of Industrial Strife in Paint and Cabin Creek Districts of West Virginia—Review of the Day's Testimony.

Charleston, W. Va., June 17.—When the miners closed their testimony before the senate mine strike committee, Chairman Kenyon rebuked the operators' counsel for not being ready with their case.

The operators put on two witnesses before adjournment, C. S. Cowherd, a former railroad conductor in the strike territory, who testified that he saw a crowd of strikers beat up a nonunion miner last summer, and when witness interfered they started to pummel him. He said he "drew a union card on them" and they desisted. Then a striker was about to shoot their victim when "Mother" Jones, who was present, interfered, and saved the man's life.

Dr. Ray Steele, for years a mining camp physician, testified to sanitary conditions as being generally good.

Reports that a strike was to be called by the union in upper Cabin creek disturbed the senate committee. It was learned, however, that no strike is sought by the union, though the situation is admitted to be serious. Mass meetings are being held by miners on the hilltop on Cabin creek in protest against the action of some operators in discharging men for being affiliated with the union. It is predicted that trouble will break out there.

The senate subcommittee listened for hours to stories from miners, railroad men and others, of assaults and outrages on the miners committed by mine guards. The committee finally declared it had heard enough of that kind of evidence, and declared it closed.

Deputy Sheriff Lee Calvin, who testified that a posse on an armored train fired into the miners, was cross-examined. He is a gigantic red-headed man, and sturdily stuck to his story, adding to it the statement that Mr. Morton said to the posse during the fighting, "Give 'em hell, boys."
The strikers, he said, fired back at the train, which, being without lights and moving, was not struck by any bullets.

DEPARTMENT PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR FERRELL

As He Was and As He Is.

Among the arrivals for the G. A. R. Encampment is J. K. P. Ferrell, of Uhrichsville, O. Mr. Ferrell is the department patriotic instructor, whose duty it is to visit the schools of the state and cause patriotic instruction to be given the rising generations. He served during the war in Co. A, 51st Ohio, and spent 14 months in Andersonville prison.

VISITORS COMING ON EVERY TRAIN

The spirit of '61 reigns supreme in Washington. For a few short days years roll away and silver-haired men are again "the boys" and it is Gettysburg or Bull Run or Shiloh, the battle and the battlefield, the thrilling experiences of war, that for the time being thrust into the background every present-day issue. From every part of the state veterans have been pouring in all day and local patriotism, has risen to the flood tide to greet the Grand Army of the Republic. Prominent business men of our city have temporarily abandoned their own interests and for the past two days have placed themselves and their cars at the disposal of the comrades and the representatives of the auxiliary bodies. Every train has been met by the members of the reception committee and the visitors are being pleasantly located in the hospitable homes of our city. Everything is moving off with dispatch and smoothness and already it is a foregone conclusion that the 47th annual encampment will go down in G. A. R. annals as one of royal pleasure and unmitigated success.

The comradeship, always a feature of special delight in the smaller cities is pre-eminent in the present encampment and every arrangement has been made with the intention of having "the boys" within close touch of each other. The headquarters for each body are within easy access and not in an Encampment since the one here nine years ago has there been such constant "meeting and greeting" as is now taking place on the court house grounds and at the nearby headquarters.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

June 2, 1879.

Attorneys Asa Gregg and A. R. Creamer have associated themselves in the practice of law in the courts of this and adjoining counties. Attorney H. L. Hadley, our recently acquired townsman has a neat new frame dwelling about completed over in Gardner's Addition.

Washington market. Considerable grain is coming in; the following prices are paid: Corn, 80c; wheat, $1.00; rye, 80c; wool, 38c. For country produce the following are the prices paid: Butter, 15c; eggs, 12c; bacon, 16c; hams, 17c; shoulders, 12c; lard, 16c; potatoes, best 50c.

Our gigantic friend, Ethan Allen, woke the echoes in the region around the treasurer's on Tuesday with a "smile" that brought people swarming out of the business houses along Court street to see what was the matter. We fear we shall never die happy until we have witnessed a laughing match between Mr. Allen and George Wigginton for the championship. And then we would like to back the winner against the state.

No more billiards after tomorrow in Washington for a time at least.

OPENING MEETING ROUSING ONE

Grace Church Was Packed From Wall to Wall with Splendid Audience Monday night.

ABLE SPEECHES DELIVERED BY NOTED ORATORS

With Grace church packed to the doors and hundreds standing and unable to gain entrance, the 47th Annual Encampment of the Department of Ohio of the G. A. R. was formally opened with the "Greetings Meeting" at Grace church Monday night.

Not only did the immense audience represent every branch of the G. A. R. now convening in our city; there was also a splendid representation of citizens and not one who rose to sing our national hymn, "My Country 'Tis of Thee", but felt the surge of new patriotism and the wakening of fresh loyalty to the honored veterans of the G. A. R.

The beautiful church is magnificently decorated, hundreds of red, white and blue pennants waving from the dome and flags unfurled to every view point. Chancel and pulpit were draped with immense flags and on either side of the pulpit rose tall floor vases filled with white roses and carnations.

Rev. F. E. Ross made the opening prayer.

Col. Charles W. Blodgett, department commander and chairman for the evening, made a direct and forceful opening speech. With warm enthusiasm, Col. Blodgett recalled the entertainment given the Encampment by this city, nine years ago, and the anticipation it aroused for the present occasion. The department commander resented remarks that he had heard implying that liquor was being shipped in here for the benefit of the old soldiers and claimed that to be only a "bootlegger's excuse."

Col. Blodgett introduced Mrs. Dora L. Brush, department president Woman's Relief Corps as a "Bunch of Dynamite", and the audience had every reason to believe the ready, witty speaker well christened. In her brief speech of greetings, Mrs. Brush paid tribute to the G. A. R. and expressed the always eager desire of the W. R. C. to be of service.

Col. Blodgett also introduced the bright ten year old son of Col. J. C. Jennings, of California, J. C. Jennings, Jr.

Post Department Commander, H. A. Axline, responded to Mrs. Brush's greetings with appreciative words and indulged in some spicy G. A. R. reminiscences.

Miss Haldee Van Winkle made graceful greeting for the Ladies of the G. A. R., which if not as large numerically as the W. R. C., is a notable organization and renowned for its patriotic zeal.

Responding to this greeting Past J. V. Department Commander George Knofflock, delighted the audience with his fund of anecdote and interesting remarks including all the G. A. R. bodies.

Encouraging beyond expectation were "Greetings by the Sons of Veterans," in which F. W. Combs, division commander, spoke of the growing strength and zeal of the organization. The response by J. R. Johnston,

Past Department Commander, was able and appropos.

In a very pleasing way, Miss Minnie Derbyshire, Department President, gave "Greetings by the Daughters of Veterans". There are now 1200 Daughters in the state.

In response, Rev. Delos A. Ferguson, Department Chaplain, complimented the Daughters, and claimed the G. A. R. could not do without them.

Feeling that the hour was growing late, R. Bertha Steykhams, Division President, tactfully made her talk concise and to the point. W. W. Youngston, Department Mustering Officer, made brief response.

A feature of the evening was the presentation to Department Commander Chas. W. Blodgett by Judge Warnock, of Urbana, of a very handsome Past Department Commander badge, made of gold and set with diamonds. The speaker voiced the sentiment of the entire G. A. R. in the appreciation expressed of Col. Blodgett's splendid service.

Exceptionally fine music interspersed the evening's oratory. The two special quartets arranged for the week are a mixed quartet, Miss Jessie Leavelle, of Bloomington, soprano; Mr. R. R. Kibler, tenor; Mrs. Mary Goldsberry Burgett, contralto; Mr. L. Bowman, baritone, and a male quartet, Dr. L. P. Howell, 1st tenor; Mr. Kibler, 2nd tenor; Mr. Bowman, 1st bass, and Mr. H. C. Ireland, 2nd bass. Both quartets were composed of unusually good voices and in splendid harmony. Their selections, "Marching Thro' Georgia," a medley, and "Tenting Tonight" met with tremendous applause. Mr. Jas. Kneisley played a beautiful violin solo, "The Drummer Boy."

Rev. A. W. West closed the program with the benediction.

Tonight at Grace church the citizens will welcome the Grand Army and auxiliary organizations.

TORRIDITY

The intense heat of the past two or three days has caused a great many prostrations and deaths in the larger cities, and throughout this part of the country the suffering has been intense.

The torridity has been general and in lower Canada the heat has been greater than along the gulf of Mexico. Toronto, Canada, showed 94 degrees Monday, and New Orleans 82. The mercury stood 96 in Chicago—the hottest June 16th on record. Nine deaths occurred in Chicago where many more were prostrated by the heat.

In this city the mercury started at 70 degrees in the morning and climbed to 93 in the afternoon, where it hung suspended for a time to the great discomfort of everyone—even the iceman.

After starting on its downward course the mercury dropped very slowly until midnight, when it stood at 70, falling five degrees more until six o'clock Tuesday morning and then bounding upward into the eighties at an early hour in the forenoon.

Little relief is promised by the weather man.

Sherwood, author of the famous "Dollar a Day Pension Bill" and for many years a prominent figure in Congress, arrived in this city Monday evening accompanied by Mrs. Sherwood, and will be guests of Col. B. H. Millikan during the Encampment. General Sherwood will deliver a speech at Memorial Hall, Wednesday evening.

General Sherwood is one of the most prominent figures in attendance at the Encampment, and is popular with all veterans in general. Tuesday morning he spent a half hour at The Herald office. He was at one time publisher of a newspaper at Bryan, Ohio.

The General attended college at Antioch, and when a young man taught school in Greene county.

BIG MOTOR TRUCK COMING TOMORROW

A big motor fire engine, manufactured by the Seagraves Company, will be in the city tomorrow to take part in the flower and flag parade, and give demonstrations of speed and water throwing.

It leaves Columbus at six o'clock in the morning and will arrive here about nine.

The truck is like the one the city council contemplates purchasing in the near future, and will be tried out with a view to purchase.

All Candidates Have Large and Enthusiastic Followings and the Final Outcome Is Awaited With Keen Interest.

W. R. C., Tuesday A. M.—Dora L. Brush, the efficient little president, who through the past months, when misfortune in the shape of flood, visited many Ohio Corps, has by her prompt and loving efforts, exerted in their behalf, endeared herself to all hearts, is being solicited to again become a candidate for the presidency, having received communications from many corps throughout the state, making this request. Before any other state had taken action, Ohio circulars were out. Over $2000 in money was distributed and the relief other than money amounted to more than $10,000. Over 1468 families, members of G. A. R. and W. R. C., were reported as having passed through the flood. It has been one of the most successful administrations in the history of the state. We now number 12,800 souls and have gained one more national delegate. In spite of the many varied calls upon the president, nothing has been forgotten or neglected that would make for the success of the Department of Ohio.

SADIE D. CHAPMAN.
Miss Sadie D. Chapman, of Iron-ton, Ohio, is one of the prominent candidates for Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps. Miss Chapman has served the Department of Ohio, as Department Instituting and Installing Officer; Inspector, Patriotic Instructor, Chairman Executive Board, President 10th District twice, President 9th District, Chairman Madison Home Committee, Memorial University Committee and Sandusky Home Committee. Miss Chapman is widely known throughout Ohio, having been for the past seventeen years, actively engaged in Department work, and is at present the Department Jr. Vice President.

JANET MANN.
Janet Mann, of Ashland, Ohio, is again a candidate for Department President at the earnest solicitation of her corps, as well as of numerous influential friends in the state. Mrs. Mann has not made as strenuous a campaign as have some of the other candidates, but her friends, knowing and loving her for her true worth and ability, are not willing for her to withdraw and are standing for her loyally, and supporting her right royally in this, her candidacy for the highest office in the Department.

EMOGENE MARSHALL.
Emogene Marshall, of Sandusky, the idol of the Sandusky Home, beloved friend and little mother of the veterans of that institution, a woman loyal and true, is one of the several candidates for Department President this year, and being loyally supported by the many friends throughout the state.

MRS. VIOLA GALBRAITH

A NOTED SINGER.

Mrs. Viola Galbraith—the beautiful singer who has delighted audiences of the Grand Army and Woman's Relief Corps for the past six years; sang at the opening session, "The Song of the Flag", by Reginald De Koven. During the Encampment Mrs. Galbraith will offer "The Old Flag and The New", written for, and dedicated to her by Willa McLane Pugh and John Emil Eaker. Mrs. Galbraith is a prime favorite and her singing never fails to please and gratify her audiences.

WILL PRESENT XENIA'S INVITATION

Xenia has decided to invite the Department of Ohio G. A. R. to that city again next year, and the invitation will be formally tendered Thursday by Col. I. T. Cummins.

Xenia is to send a large delegation to this city Thursday to represent that city in its request for the Encampment next year, and indications for the favorable consideration of the invitation are said to be very bright.

Every Xenian who comes Thursday will wear a suitable badge.

Y. M. C. A. OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

During this week the Y. M. C. A. building will be open throughout the day and night, and a man will be in charge to look after those quartered at the Association building, or who visit it.

During the busy hours, Mr. Zaner and his assistants will handle the crowds, while one or two night clerks will look after the Association building during the less busy hours.

The Y. M. C. A. is one of the principal headquarters and consequently one of the busiest places in the city.

Holds Them to Real Proof

Judge Newby, of the Common Pleas court, refused the other day to enter a decree of divorce upon the petition of a wife against her husband.

This is not the first time Judge Newby has refused to grant the petitioner a divorce and in all probability it will not be the last time.

Judge Newby has been occupying a seat on the Common Pleas bench of this subdivision for a long term of years and his reputation for ability and integrity has grown with each passing year.

It is likely, however, that no one act will add more to his well merited reputation for ability and integrity than his course in divorce case matters.

He is one of the judges who believes that divorces should only be granted when the existence of one of the statutory grounds is proven.

His experience has taught him the difference between real proof and frame-up, between the case in which there exists a real and substantial reason for dissolving the marriage contract and the one in which the parties have "agreed to disagree", and ask merely judicial sanction.

The laws of the state do not provide that marriage contracts may be annulled on the agreement of the parties.

The root of the divorce evil is to be found right in the superficial way too many courts look into these questions.

The standard which Judge Newby has set would do much if universally followed, to reduce the awful number of divorces.

Opponents First to Use It

Isn't it one strange trick of fortune that those who objected the longest and the loudest and the most emphatically against the adoption of the initiative and referendum in Ohio, should be the first to avail themselves of them as weapons.

Unless all indications fail the people of the state will soon vote their approval or their disapproval of certain legislative enactments written into the statutes of Ohio at the last session of the General Assembly.

The element that will bring about these elections if they do come, are the capitalists of the state.

And only a few short months ago the same element was certain that to permit the people the use of the referendum would mean chaos in the state's affairs.

It is not the purpose to here enter into a discussion of the merits of the respective arguments on that issue. Merely to call attention to the celerity with which human beings can change their tune. After all, whether we live on the one side or the other of these political issues, whether we cast our fortune with the side which is more respectful of property rights, or with the side which leans more to the sacredness of free institutions, and a broader more available right in the people, all are human and when the shoe, adjusted to the foot by the law-making powers, begins to pinch there is going to be a howl go up and the first weapon of defense or offense which offers will be seized and used.

The viewpoint changes instantly; that's human nature.

Those people who most loudly proclaimed the beauties of the I. and R. are the ones now who are less anxious to have it used. Those who most loudly railed against it are the first to seize it as a prop to aid them in their distress.

Any port looks good in a storm.

Senseless Waste of Vulgar Rich Cause of Unrest

By the Rev. Dr. B. W. R. TAYLER of St. George's P. E. Church of Schenectady, N. Y.

THE national sore spots are not only in such places as Lowell and Lawrence and Paterson and the east side, New York, but we find them also in Lenox and Newport and Fifth avenue, New York, and other social centers, where side by side, with a true and distinct American culture, reek the VULGARITIES OF THE EASILY RICH; where ill gotten wealth is squandered lavishly and ostentatiously; where more is spent upon a monkey or a puppy in one day than WOULD CLOTHE AND FEED TEN AMERICAN CHILDREN IN ONE WEEK; where brainless fools and vulgarly habited women hold high revelry.

THEY HAVE NO RIGHT TO CORRUPT THEIR FELLOWS, TO DEBAUCH THE SELF RESPECT OF THEIR SERVANTS, TO INCREASE THE COST OF LIVING FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT SPEND AS THEY CAN SPEND. THE SECRET OF THE HIGH COST OF LIVING LIES IN THIS SENSELESS WASTE FOR WHICH THEY ARE LARGELY RESPONSIBLE.

Poetry For Today

THE FLAG GOES BY.

Hats off!
Along the street there comes
A blare of bugles, a ruffle of drums;
A flash of color beneath the sky,
Hats off!
The Flag is passing by,
Blue and crimson and white it shines
Over the steel-tipped, ordered lines.

Hats off!
The colors before us fly,
But more than the Flag is passing by,
Sea-fights and land-fights, grim and great,
Fought to make and save the state,
Weary marches and sinking ships,
Cheers of victory on dying lips,

Days of plenty and years of peace,
March of a strong land's swift increase,
Equal justice, right and law,
Stately honor and reverend awe,
Sign of a Nation, great and strong,
To ward her people from foreign wrong,

Pride and glory and honor—all
Live in the colors to stand or fall.

Hats off!
Along the street there comes
A blare of bugles, a ruffle of drums;
And loyal hearts are beating high,
Hats off!
The Flag is passing by

RICHARD L. METCALFE, COL. BRYAN'S EDITOR AND PANAMA CANAL ZONE HE MAY CONTROL

Washington, June 17.—The expected appointment of Richard L. Metcalfe, editor of William J. Bryan's Commonwealth, to be civil governor of the Panama canal zone was taken as an indication that President Wilson and the state department wished to keep a close eye on affairs surrounding the big ditch. The canal will be completed this year, according to present plans, although not open to world traffic. The president wished to have his hand in close touch with affairs because of the importance of the great work. As civil governor Mr. Metcalfe will likely be "in the saddle" when Colonel Goethals and his army staff surrender control. He has been associated with Colonel Bryan for years and is prominent in Nebraska politics.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATED SUNDAY

Children's Day was effectively celebrated in a number of the city churches Sunday.

At Grace Church the regular morning service was turned over to the Sunday School and a specially beautiful children's day program was presented to an assemblage which packed the church.

The decorations were a distinctive feature of the services, the color scheme of white and green carried out most artistically. Two extra platforms had been added to the regular church stage and extended far out into the auditorium.

Everything was covered with white linen, the edges of the platform edged with oak leaves and the organ bench trimmed in leaves and ferns. On either side were banks of greenery and white hydrangeas, guarded by the Bucks' florists tall flower vases filled with white cantenbury bells, roses and carnations and vases of white roses on the newel posts.

The pure white formed singularly appropriate for the tiny tots who rose like vari-colored flowers.

Mrs. Morna Blessing Chapman presided at the organ, playing the prelude and a series of fine organ numbers as well as the accompaniments.

The children of the Sunday School gave a choice program of songs, recitations and drills. A specially attentive exercise was given in connection with a beautiful original poem, written by Miss Bess Cleveland, entitled, "The Soul of a Child," a ribbon drill by sixteen girls and "The Flower Girls," by four darling little tots, were marked numbers. The songs were by the primary class and Miss Melvin's class.

The program was excellently managed by the committee, Mr. Gilbert Adams, Chairman, Bess Cleveland, Daisy Cockerill, Ethel Calvert, Mr. Geo. Bryan.

The Presbyterian Sunday School gave an exceedingly pretty entertainment Sunday evening, enjoyed by an immense audience.

The altar and chancel were covered with white and most beautifully decorated with oak leaves and roses.

The Primary department gave a delightful program, the babies especially entertaining in their cute songs and recitations, and the little ones looking so pretty as they sang and spoke.

Two special numbers were a "Rose Drill," by Miss Breech's class and a beautiful recitation kindly given by Miss Virginia Evans, of Norfolk, Va.

Miss Lillian Davis contributed much to the pleasure of the evening in finely rendered organ numbers and organ accompaniments. Mrs. C. E. Howland played the piano accompaniments and Mrs. J. T. Tuttle, had charge of the excellent chorus work.

The program showed much work in preparation and was in charge of Miss Mazie Kessler, assisted by Mrs. Ora Findley, Mrs. Evans, Misses Blanche Beech and Maxine Kibler.

Mrs. Wesley DeWesse and Mrs. Albert Snider had in charge a splendid program at the First Baptist church Sunday night. Mrs. J. H. Hicks, pianist, assisting with the music.

The pulpit was over-arched with green and prettily adorned with flowers.

The feature of the program was "The Story of the Cross" given by seven young ladies, while the curtains in front of the baptistry parted to show the cross and fountain.

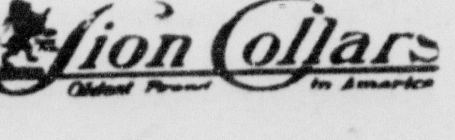

A rose and rainbow drills and a pantomime "Rock of Ages" were also beautiful.

A Cantata, "Hearts of Gold," given by the Primary and Intermediate departments of the East End Sunday School, Sunday afternoon. Flowers added fragrance and the children sang well.

Mrs. Bryant assisted the classes of Mrs. Roeder and Miss Daily and the others in the program.

Chicago, June 17.—Cattle sold at $9.20 per 100 pounds at the stockyards. This is the highest point of the year. In the last two weeks the price has risen 60 cents per 100 and packers predict still higher prices. Evidence of a beef famine is shown by the light live stock receipts.

WEATHER MAN
TURNS ON HEAT

After a week of cool weather during which he paved the way for Jack Frost, the Weather Man again turned on the heat Saturday and since that time he has been working overtime in his heating plant, with the result that humanity has been sweltering under the pressure of 80 to 95 degrees.

One week ago Sunday morning the mercury hovered around 50 degrees, but Sunday afternoon Gossard's self registering thermometer showed 92 degrees of heat, while other instruments exposed to the rays of the sun ran up to near the 100 mark.

Monday noon the mercury stood well up in the eighties, with a decided inclination to reach above 90 Monday afternoon.

CANAL DOVER IS "LOGICAL POINT"

Loyal rooters are here urging upon the assembled delegates that Canal Dover is the only real place to hold the 1914 Encampment.

The twin cities of Canal Dover and

New Philadelphia form the "logical point" rooters say in imparting delegates for votes.

The committee claims that for railroad facilities, Canal Dover and New Philadelphia is the best in Ohio for the 1914 Encampment.

"Vote for Dover" is the slogan.

LOSES VALUABLE MEDAL HERE TODAY

Mr. George A. Lloyd, of Co. A, 122 Ohio, one of the Encampment visitors to the city, had the misfortune to lose a bronze medal on the streets Tuesday morning, the medal having been awarded to him by a special act of Congress for capturing a Confed-erate flag at the battle of St. Peters-burg on April 2, 1865.

Mr. Lloyd is stopping at the Ar-lington and is very anxious to have the medal returned by the finder.

Model Farm Official Resigns.
Cleveland, O., June 17.—The recent long list of escapes at the Warrens-ville workhouse, Cleveland's model correction farm, resulted in a shake-up of administration officials. Mayor Baker accepted the resignation of Su-perintendent W. H. Cowley and ap-pointed Robert W. Mack, assistant to Cowley, in his place.

Accidentally Kills Daughter.
Bernice, O., June 17.—Martha Pah-ness, 27, was instantly killed when a shotgun in the hands of her father, Joseph, sent a charge into the girl's head. She was to have been married Thursday. "I didn't know the gun was loaded," the father said.

Passing of Della Fox.
New York, June 17.—Della Fox, for many years a widely known and pop-ular musical comedienne, died in a private sanitarium here. About a year ago she underwent an operation in the same institution. A recurrent at-tack necessitated another operation, but the actress died soon after reach-ing the sanitarium.

Splendid Speeches and Music Make Event One of Unusual Interest. Department Chorister, J. W. Hank, of Jackson County, Sings His Original and Ever Popular Songs.

By Janet Wentz.

The morning session of the W. R. C. held at Grace M. E. church, opened with the singing of "America" by the entire audience, called to their feet by a trumpet blast and led by the department chorister, J. W. Hank, all favored most enthusiastically into this part of the program.

The department chorister, Catherine Kidd, then led in a prayer for guidance and direction by the Holy Spirit, and asking the blessing of the Divine One on all in attendance.

Department Chorister, Hank, popularly termed "The Canary," then sang in his usual good form the ever popular, "The Old Flag Never Touches the Ground."

The flag salute followed, given with gusto by all present.

Mrs. Brun, the Department President, was then presented by the Patriotic Instructor, Laura B. Cherry, of Mansfield, O., and in her own cheery, bright manner, made the presentation of a beautiful silk flag to the city high school, in words both inspiring and patriotic, fraught with the love all know the little president holds in her heart for her country and its flag.

Wm. McClure, superintendent of the schools made the responsive address in acceptance of the flag in behalf of the city and school, in well chosen, comprehensive language, an address enjoyed by all, dwelling upon the meaning of the colors, red, white and blue; red, for courage, white for purity; blue for loyalty, which make for the good citizen and for the good soldier.

Mrs. Viola Galbraith, of Toledo, then sang by request, "The Flag That Never Knew Defeat." As usual the audience was delighted. Mrs. Galbraith's beautiful voice has seldom been in better form than at the opening session and flag presentation. She very graciously responded to a long continued applause with another verse of the same song.

The session here closed with announcements of the various organizations.

The singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and the benediction closed the flag presentation.

SHILOH RECALLED

Among the visiting veterans is W. H. McClure, of Iowa, Kansas.

He was a captain in the 71st O. V. I. His regiment was prominent in the fight at Shiloh. T. J. Lindsey, of this city was being taken, badly wounded from the field in an ambulance. Capt. McClure came up carrying Lieutenant Colonel Kyle, of Miami county, who was badly wounded. Captain McClure assisted in taking Mr. Lindsey from the ambulance and putting him on the seat with the driver and in putting Col. Kyle, who subsequently died from his wounds, in the ambulance.

Captain McClure placed Mr. Lindsey in such a position on the driver's seat, with his arm about the top brace that he was able, weak as he was from his wound to retain his seat until the mules pulling the ambulance were killed by a shell.

The driver of the ambulance stood his ground until soldiers carried the wounded from the ambulance to the rear.

Mr. Lindsey has always felt that to the man who placed him on that ambulance wagon seat he largely owed his life.

That man he has not seen for fifty-one years until Monday evening he met him on the streets of this city.

Captain McClure recognized Mr. Lindsey instantly and told him that supposing him to have died long ago, when he learned, two years ago from Major Reed, chairman of the National Shiloh Battlefield Commission that he was alive, he determined to come here and see him.

It is needless to say that the meeting was a joyous one. Captain McClure believes he can locate the driver of the ambulance and he and Mr. Lindsey are busy now trying to locate him among the visitors or learn his whereabouts.

Incidents like these are the magnet which draw the old soldiers to these reunions.

They occur frequently. No wonder they come and anticipate the gatherings from year to year.

or the doctor after the maid had left, following him to the back porch and again into the private office, where she fired again, inflicting a wound that touched the heart and caused instant death.

Instantly Miss Kittles turned the revolver upon herself, inflicting a wound in the right temple, and falling across the feet of Dr. Brinkley. Instantly expired. As soon as the firing began Miss Kittles' companion, a woman about 40 years of age, left the office by the front door and disappeared.

Dr. Brinkley was a Virginian, and settled in Savannah several years ago, coming from Suffolk. He was unmarried. Katie Kittles was the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Kittles, who keeps a rooming house here. She had lived in Savannah nearly all her life, and while said to be somewhat erratic at times, she had never given any evidence of insanity. She was about 23 years old.

the Baldwin-Feltz agency, which supplied the mine guards for the Paint creek and Cabin creek operators during the strike, was the principal witness. Mr. Feltz told the committee that when the trouble on Paint and Cabin creeks was at its height his concern had about 110 armed men at Cabin creek and about 35 men on Paint creek. He also said that his company had from six to 10 men working in the strike district as "secret service operators." These men, he said, furnished information to the operators and his agency.

"Did your men make a list of those men who were organizers for the United Mine Workers and those men who were active in the union for the use of the operators?" asked Seymour Stedman, attorney for the miners.

The KAYSER SILK GLOVE

is the World's standard silk glove—
all other silk gloves are measured by the "KAYSER" standard.

The development of the "KAYSER" Silk Glove represents the attainment of an ideal, the achievement of which has not been hampered by restrictions of cost or time, nor influenced by a passing demand for features most aptly characterized as "talking points."

We could not afford to buy expensive advertising space "year after year," to tell the women of America that "KAYSER" Gloves are the best in style, fit and finish—if it were not true.

"KAYSER" gloves last no more than the ordinary kind—and are worth double in quality, fit and value. Don't accept the "just as good" kind, there's a way to tell the genuine—"Look in the Hem"—if you find the name "KAYSER"—you have the kind that "don't wear out" at the finger ends.
